about us

At Willa and the Bear we strive to produce beautiful nursery bedding based on traditional values of quality and style.

Our cot bedding is made from hand-printed cotton and proudly manufactured in the UK representing in voluptate velit esse cillum dolore eu

Whilst our nightwear is ethically commissioned from artisans in Nepal who block print our fabric by hand before stitching each individual piece.

All of our fabrics will become softer and softer with careful washing over time.

Our bedding is intended to see several generations through their tender first years and we hope will be added to your collections of heirloom nursery items.

Willa and the Bear founder, Hattie Goodley, has a long history with Nepal, having lived there for several years and been a trustee of a small orphanage in Kathmandu (House of Hope). Hattie has formed a working partnership with an artisan women's co-operative to produce Willa and the Bear's beautiful and unique cotton and muslin blankets, quilts and pyjamas. Although the studio thankfully avoided destruction in the disastrous earthquakes of May 2015, many of the women's families and friends have been enormously affected and it will be a long process before normality is restored.

Willa and the Bear is proud to be supporting Nepalese industry and a percentage of the proceeds from our Made in Nepal products will be reinvested straight back into the local community #supportnepal

ETHICAL FORESTRY

TREKONVÄRDE is a carefully managed subsidiary of Södra - the largest forestry cooperative in Sweden. Södra is an economic association with a membership base of 21,000 forest owners in southern Sweden.

Members own more than half of the privately owned forest in the region. Since its inception the Södra forest industry group members have demonstrated an unshakable commitment to responsible commercial forestry and an active consideration for natural and cultural values and local issues.

WISDOM FROM NATURE from our forests is used by Trexethus. Swedish pine grows well in the forest that means our logs. The relatively slow growth produces stronger, stronger and longer lasting wood than that available from faster growing trees. As a result it is highly sought after and Södra supplies timber products worldwide.

GREEN CREDENTIALS

Södra takes its responsibility for regeneration seriously with 1,000,000 trees planted for every one harvested.

We are proud of the green credentials of the long standing Swedish forestry tradition. Södra places the environment at the heart of forest management. It ensures that sustainable operations mean long-term profits, so responsible forestry is an environmental, economic and social necessity. Södra promotes responsible forestry by setting challenging environmental targets for the various parts of the company.

Södra sets environmental targets and to reduce energy consumption and carbon dioxide by 40% over 10 years. It also actively promotes careful use of water management and works to ensure the highest standards of workplace safety.

UNIQUE

FACTORY PRODUCTION AND CONSISTENT QUALITY DOES NOT MEAN A STANDARD PRODUCT. TREXETHUS CONSTRUCTION SYSTEMS ARE EASILY ADJUSTED TO ACCOMMODATE ANY CLIENT DESIGN.

THE COMMON SENSE system brings flexibility without compromise. From off design that exactly meets the requirements of the site and the client's needs, we can easily extend to all the Trexethus factories. We have over 20 years of experience of designing and delivering stunning, customised buildings in thousands of different settings. We are happy to meet the needs of even the most complex projects.

The simple steel roof can be flat or pitched and every architectural style using virtually any material. Deck or stone masonry, stone led, modern terraces, lightweight timber, aluminium and timber flooring. Our reputation has been built on the production of all of our buildings, no matter what shape or size, to the very highest standards of design and function. The highest quality of materials and outstanding workmanship.

"CustomerSure is the best software we have invested in this year. It's brought us closer to clients and ensures the teams are aware of any issues right away"

Get Feedback

Email a short, simple satisfaction survey after you've delivered a service or product.

Lasting Relationships
For a lasting relationship with your customers, use the feedback to make sure they'll sing your praises.

Reviews
To acquire more customers you can show reviews on your website or in your sales proposals

The end result is 100% satisfaction
"Not only can you find out what your customers think - you can act on the areas that need improvement!"

Improve and grow your business

Use the real-time feedback to make sure every customer is completely happy.

Service Features
Our follow up features handle all your customer feedback. Not only feedback but also sales enquiries, suggestions and complaints. It's much better than email alone and it eases the burden on your team.

HELPING YOU IMPROVE SATISFACTION RATHER THAN JUST MEASURE IT

Analytics
Powerful analytics, including Net Promoter Score help you seize sales opportunities, spot customers at risk and stay ahead of your competition.

Get Feedback

Your client receives an email containing a fast, simple check, to make sure they're completely satisfied. You've just given them a way to make their life better, and they'll thank you for it.

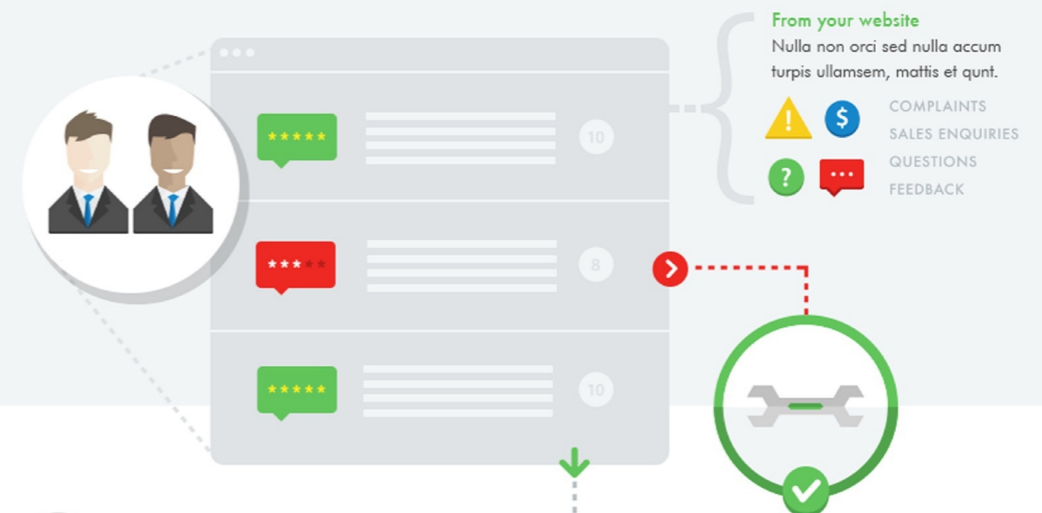

Effective

The best time to ask a client for feedback is when they've just received a service from you. Big annual surveys are interesting, but they're not the best way to increase spend, retention and referrals.

Icons

- Icons can be used sparingly when photography is not appropriate.
- Icons are fat, simple and stylised
- Icons should be used in brand turquoise or grey

The Scott Logic Brand is primarily a photographic brand with a simple logo, strong typography and great documentary imagery. However sometimes icons can be used to support a design project. This is usually a white paper or technical document. Icons are simple, stylised and applied in one colour.

Brand Imagery
People

- Documentary style images
- Photography should be natural and relaxed.
- Brand imagery by Chris Auld Photography
- Large image library available

Photography is an important part of the Scott Logic brand. The brand uses documentary style photography shot by Chris Auld. Images should look natural and relaxed, not posed. There is a large bank of photography available from the Marketing team. Brand imagery is heavily focussed on people photography but should be paired with creative product / screen shots.

Header Strip

- Strip used to draw attention to header text.
 - 100% and 50% opacity strip
 - The same formula and spacing can be used for portrait or landscape.
 - Only used in brand turquoise - no other colours should be used.
- The turquoise strip is an important element of the Scott Logic brand. It should be applied to images to draw attention to header text. The strip is made up of a 100% opacity strip and a 50% opacity strip in the Scott Logic turquoise. The strip height is determined by the amount of text and the spacing should be equal to one row of text. This spacing formula can be used for different text sizes and page orientation.
